CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE OF THE TITLES OF ALL THE ACTS
PASSED IN THE REIGNS OF KING JAMES II. AND KING WILLIAM AND QUEEN MARY.

THE STATUTES OF KING JAMES II.

THE STATUTES OF KING WILLIAM AND QUEEN MARY.

INDEX OF PRINCIPAL MATTERS
IN THE STATUTES CONTAINED IN VOLUME VI

PREFACE TO THIS VOLUME.

---

THE SIXTH VOLUME OF THE STATUTES OF THE REALM contains the Statutes from the Commencement of the Reign of King James the Second, A.D. 1685, to the End of the 6th and 7th Years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, A.D. 1694.

THIS VOLUME has been printed, and the Chronological Table and Index have been framed, in strict conformity with the Principles referred to in the Preface to the Fifth Volume, and it is therefore unnecessary to repeat them here. It may however be proper to mention, that although Queen Mary appears to have died between the passing of the Statutes Chapter II. and Chapter III. of the 6th and 7th Years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, yet the Heading is continued throughout these Years "6 & 7 GEOR. & MAR.," as the Record affords no Authority for breaking the Year. Indeed it seems probable, had the Attention of the Legislature at that time been called to the Subject, that the Statute which now stands as Chapter III. 6 & 7 William and Mary, would have followed a corresponding Heading upon a new Parliament Roll as Chapter I. 1 William III.; as it is obvious that no Year or Chapter from the last Act of the Reign of William and Mary could have been correctly designated as a continuing Year or Chapter of the Reign of William the Third.

THREE Engravings, the First, of the Act for removing and preventing Questions and Disputes concerning the assembling and sitting of the then present Parliament, 1 William and Mary, the Second, of the Act for establishing the Coronation Oath, 1 William and Mary; and the Third, of the Act for recognising King William and Queen Mary, and for avoiding all Questions touching the Acts made in the Parliament assembled at Westminster the 13th Feb. 1688, 2 William and Mary, are inserted respectively at Pages 28, 56, and 156 of this Volume.

LONDON,
March 1693.

JOHN RAITHEY,
SOLICITOR-GENERAL.

CHAPTER XVII.

An Act to encourage the Building of Shippes in England.

Enacted in 1685.

A more than ordinary Duty on building Shippes in England.

WHEREAS for some years past and more especially since the laying a Duty upon Goods brought into the River of Thames there hath been observed a more than ordinary Decay in Building Shippes in England and particularly in New Castle Hall Yarmouth Ipswich Doverish Walsworth Woodbridge and Harwich where many great Shippes were yearly built for the Coast and other Trade which were of great use to his Majesty in time of War and a Nursery for able Seamen but by the Discontentment that Trade hath ever since taken under occasional subsidy by the freestone which Foreign Shippes and Vessels brought and brought into this Kingdom have enjoyed in the Coast and other Island Trade equal to that of English built Shippes the Merchants Owners and others have not been able to build as formerly which hath caused many of our English Shippeswrights Craftsmen and Seamen to seek their Employment abroad whereby the Building Trade is not only wholly lost in several of the aforementioned places and in others very much decayed but alsoe the Importation of Timber Plank Hemp Pitch Tarr Iron Mass Canvas and other Commodities used in building and fitting out Shippes are greatly lessened to the apparent Prejudice of his Majesties Customs the loss of a considerable Employment for Shipping and consequently of all other Trades depending thereupon to the great Advantage of Foreign Nations.

Be it therefore enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same That all Foreign-built Ships and Vessels which shall hereafter be bought and brought into the Kingdoms of England Dominion of Wales or Towns of Berwick upon Tweed and be employed in carrying or transporting any Goods or Merchandise from Port to Port as aforesaid for every Voyage shall pay to his Majesty his Heirs and Successors at the Port of delivery of their respective Lading (before the Delivery thereof) one and above all Duties now paid or that shall hereafter be payable by English-built Ships the Summe of Five shillings per Tun to be collected and received by such Person or Persons as his Majesty shall appoint in that behalf One moiety whereof to be for the use of the Chest at Chatham the other moiety to the Master Wardens and Assistants of the Trinity House of Deptford Strand for and towards the Relief of wounded and decayed Seamen their Widows and Children.

And whereas there are now in England belonging or pretended to belong to English Owners many Foreign-built Ships and Vessels which doe transport Coale and other Goods from Port to Port in England as aforesaid paying no more Duty than English Ships pay. Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That all such Foreign Ships (which are not free) for every Voyage shall pay after the Feast of St. Michael in the years of our Lord One thousand six hundred eighty and nine at the Rate of Twelve pence per Tun over and above all Duties now paid or that shall hereafter be payable by English-built Ships to be disposed of into the Chest of Chatham and the Trinity-House of Deptford-Strand by Mayores as aforesaid and for the same before-mentioned which said last-mentioned Duty of Twelve pence per Tun shall be collected and received as manner aforesaid at their respective Ports of delivery of their respective Lading before the delivery thereof.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That his Majesty shall have the same remedy for receiving and recovering of the Duties above mentioned as are provided in a certain Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth year of the Reigne of our late Sovereigne Lord King Charles the Second Entitled A Statute granted to the King of Tonnage and Poundage and other Summes of Money payable upon Merchandise Exported and Imported.

Provided always That the said Duties of Five Shillings per Tun and Twelve pence per Tun or any Part thereof hereby imposed upon such Foreign-built Ships which have bene heretofore or shall hereafter be bought or brought into England shall not be set to Vaine to any Person or Persons for any time or time or for any Rent or service Payment whatsoever but that the said Persons who shall be appointed to receive the same shall actually receive the said whole Duty payable by every such Ship and account for the same as by the Act is directed.

taken by the Gauger of the quantity of his Low Wines still disposed of or reserve the same or any part thereof without distilling or drawing it off a second time every such Distiller or maker of Low Wines for every Gallon so sold disposed of or removed shall forfeit the summe of five shillings to be levied in manner as any penalties or forfeitures are levied by any Act relating to the Revenue of Excise

And for further enabled by the authority aforesaid That the severall Rates and Duties of Excise lawfully imposed on the Liquors aforesaid shall be used levied collected recovered and paid into their Majesties and their Successors during the time before mentioned and in the same manner and forme and by such rules wayes and courses and under such penalties and forfeitures as are lawfully expressed and directed in and by one Act of Parliament made in the twelfth year of the said King Charles the Second Entituled An Act for taking away the Count of Wards and Licences and Taxes in Chapin and by Knights Service and Purveyance and for selling a Revenue upon his Majesties his Majesties And also in and by one other Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth year of his said Majesties Raigns Entituled An Additionall Act for the better ordering and collecting the Duties of Excise and preserving the Allowances therein as in either of them, Or by any other Law now in force relating to the Revenue of Excise not otherwise herein and hereby shewed and provided against

And for the avoiding all uncertainty and all differences and disputes which of late have bene between the Gaugers and the Brewers Vintners Retailers and other persons chargeable with the duties of Excise touching Beere and Ale and touching the Returns or Charges made or to be made of Beere or Ale by the Gaugers or Officers appointed to take account and ascertain the same How it should [and directed] by the authority aforesaid That every House and every Cellars of Beere or Ale whether among or small brend or made in any part of England Wales or Towne of Berwick upon Tweed by any the person or persons aforesaid other then within the Cities of London and Westminster and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality taken by the Gauger according to the Statute of the Ale-Quest whereof shall make the Gallon remaining in the Custody of the Chamberlaine of their Majesties Exchequer shall be reckoned accounted and returned by the Gauger or Gaugers or other Officers aforesaid for a Barrell of Beere or Ale And that the allowances appointed to be made and allowed to the Common Brewers other than within the Cities of London and Westminster and the Weekly Bills of Mortality aforesaid for Waste by filling and leakage of their Beere and Ale out of the said Returns or Charges made by the said Gaugers or other Officers aforesaid shall be two Barrells and an half upon every three and twenty Barrells of Beere or Ale whether strong or small and not more any thing in the above mentioned Acts or any other Acts of Excise or any Law or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding and that every Barrell of Beere and Ale made and brewed within the said Cities of London and Westminster and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality aforesaid by any the persons aforesaid shall be reckoned accounted and returned in the same as respectively to be reckoned accounted and returned by the former Acts of Excise and that the Common Brewers within the Cities of London and Westminster and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality shall have the like allowances for waste by filling and leakage out of the said Gaugers Returns as by the said former Acts are directed

And whereas by the Laws relating to their Majesties Revenue of Excise it is enacted That Gaugers have power to gauge all Coppers Potts and Vessells as say Brewhouses and all other places whatsoever belonging to or used by any Brewer Innskeeper Vintseller or other Retailer of Beere or Ale and to take an account of Beere Ale and Wines from time to time brewed or made and thereof to make Returns and Report in Writing to the Commissioners and Subcommissioners of Excise and such Returns to be a Charge upon such Brewers Now for the preventing of Frauds and Disputes which may happen or arise by the Gaugers making their Returns [n<sup>o</sup>] aforesaid It is enacted by the authority aforesaid That where it shall appere to the Gauger or Gaugers that any Wines are mixing or not but falsely decore into the Tun and such Gauger cannot finde the same in such Case it shall be lawful [for such Gauger] to charge such Brewer Vintseller or other Retailer with one bushell Beere or Ale as such Wines are mixing would reasonably make

And for the avoiding as much as may be all Disputes It is enacted That it shall and may be lawful for all Gaugers to take their gauges and make their Returns and Charges upon wassie Wines in the Backs Cellars or other Vessells and in such Case shall make allowance to the Brewer Innskeeper Vintseller or other Retailer of one tenth part thereof for Wash and Waste for all Wines so Returned and Charged which Wines are any part of the same are to be in any sort afterwards charged with the payment of any Duty of Excise when brewed or made into Beere or Ale.

Provided always and bee it enacted by the authority aforesaid That no Innskeeper Vintseller or other Retailer of Beere or Ale shall at any time lawfully during the continuance of this Act or of the additionall Duties hereby imposed be used impleaded or excluded by Indifferent Information or Popular Action or otherwise for selling or mixing any Beere or Ale at any other or higher Prices then the Prices heretofore licensed and appeared any thing in this Act or any other Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding

And forasmuch as it is found by Experience that the payment of their Majesties Duties on Strong Wines Aqua vite and Spirit is much avoided and defrauded by the Distillers or makers of the Commodities aforesaid by reason that the Gaugers and Officers appointed to gauge and charge these Liquors are not duly admitted and permitted to enter and come into the Houses Distilling-houses or Still-houses and other places belonging to or used by such Distillers or makers of such Strong Wines Aqua vite and Spirits and the penalties imposed by the former Acts are often avoided for such default or refusal because profits cannot be made by the Informers or Officers of any Sale made of any these Commodities before the Duty thereof is paid It is enacted by the authority aforesaid That from hereafter in case any Distiller or Miler of the Commodities aforesaid shall upon due request or demand made by the Grogger or Officer in the day time or in the night-time in the presence of a Constable refuse to provide such Groggers to enter and come into his or their House Dwellinghouse Barn-house or other place belonging to or used by such Distillers or Milers of Strong Waters Aqua vite or Spirit the parties and parties so offending shall forfeit and incur the Forfeitures and Penalties by the said former Acts imposed and inflicted to be recovered in manner as therein and therein is directed and the Informer or Prosecutor shall not be obliged to prove that such Offenders sold conveyed or delivered out part of his Commodities aforesaid before he had paid or cleared the Duties due for the same any thing in the said former Act or any other Act or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding

And whereas in and by the said Act made in the fifth year of the Reigne of the late King Charles the Second It is amongst other things therein provided or enacted in the words or to the effect following (viz) That no Common Brewer or Brewster shall be used or prosecuted for any Penalty or Forfeiture by (v) as then enacted for or by reason of any Mischance or short Entry if he or they shall within one Week after the delivery of the Copy of the Groggers Returns made on his certificate his or their Entry made for the Week for which such Copy of the Returns is delivered according to such Returns for such respective Charge or Breach or otherwise discharging himselfe There is enacted by the authority aforesaid That no Brewer or Brewster shall from henceforth have or claim any benefit by the said Preamble or any Information to be brought against him or them for Non Entry withold fine Entry or Non-payment If it shall appear by the Evidence given that such Brewer or Brewster appeared to take account of the Beere or Ale by them brewed all the Beere Ale and Wares of such respective Groggs for such time for which such Copy of the Returns was made or given, Or if any apparent Fraud was alled or made to defraud their Majesties of their Duty for any part of the Duties brewed in the time for which such Copy of the Returns is made or given by the Grogger in such case such Brewer shall incur all the Penalties and Forfeitures by the former Acts provided or inflicted The said Preamble or any thing in any Acts or Statute relating to the Excise in any way notwithstanding

And for avoiding some Doubts that have arisen It is hereby declared and enacted by the authority aforesaid That every Common Brewer Innkeeper Victualler or Retailer of Beere or Ale who contrary to the said Act made in the said fifth year of the Reigne of the late King Charles the Second shall make use of any private or concealed Stillhouse Celler or place for the lying of any Beere or Ale or Wares in Caskes shall forfeit the Summe of fifty pounds for every such offence And every such Brewer Innkeeper Victualler or Retailer who contrary to the said Act made as aforesaid shall mix conceale or convey away any Wares shall forfeit forty shillings for every Barrell of Wares by him or them so mingled concealed or conveyed away contrary to the said Act And the Commissioners of Excise and Justices of the Peace and all others authorised to hear and determine Forfeitures and Offences against the Laws relating to the Excise respectively on Complaints or Informations brought for these Offences or either of them and duly proved before them are hereby authorised to give Judgment or Sentence for the respective Forfeitures according to any Qualities or not requiring of the said Offences or either of them in and by the said Act notwithstanding

And to the end Common Brewers and other persons paying the Duty of Excise may not be troubled It is hereby declared and enacted That one Shew in Writing of the late Groggers made or taken by the said Groggers shall be left by them with all Beere and Malt or Retailer of Beere Ale or other reasonable Liquors respectively at some of their Stillhouses at the times of their taking their said Groggs containing the quantity and quality of the Liquors so grogged upon penalty of forty shillings for every Offence or Neglect of the said Grogger or Groggers

And it is hereby enacted That the Commissioners of Excise or Appeals or Justices of Peace within whose Jurisdiction respectively any such Brewer Miler or Retailer shall inhabit or dwell upon Complaint to them made by or on the behalf of such Brewer Miler or Retailer of any Overcharge returned upon them by any of the said Groggers shall and are required to hear and determine all such Complaints and examine the Witnesses upon Oath which shall be produced as well on the behalf of the person making such Complaint as on the behalf of all and every other party and parties (which Oath they have hereby power to administer) and thereupon or by other due proofs to discharge or acquit such Brewer Miler or Retailer of one much of his and their respective Charges as shall be so made out before them any thing in this or in any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding

And whereas there is but one Market Town in the County of Aylshyre by reason of which the inhabitants of some parts of the said County are put to extraordinary trouble and expense to make their Entries and Payments being four and twenty miles distant from the said Market Towns It is enacted by the authority aforesaid That for the ease of the said inhabitants living remote from the said Market Towns there shall be Offices kept for the taking Entries and Payments in the several Towns of Holybryd Newbrough and Llanthymarch as well as in the Towns of Beaumaris where only the said Office has been accustomed to be kept

And whereas several Collections Surveyors Groggers and other persons employed about collecting surveying or grogging the Duty of Excise have been forced to pay several sums of money to the Commissioners of Excise or their Register or Clerks (upon) pretence that the same is for writing upping and making Introductions or Orders for every such Office in respect of place which must cost such Office to reimburse himself upon the People by one means or other For provision whereof It is enacted That no Commissioner or (other) person employed about the Duty of Excise shall demand take or receive any summe of money at other reward whatsoever from any person other than their Majesties upon pain of forfeiting his or their Office upon proof thereof by two or more credible Witnesses before any two of their Majesties Justices of the Peace not as every such person so offending is hereby made incapable of executing any Office in their Majesties Revenue of the Excise for the future

Provided also That no Information shall be brought laid or prosecuted against any Common Bawer or Broom or Alehousekeeper for any false or misentry or Offence made or committed from and after the first of January day of July one thousand six hundred eighty and also unless the same Information or Informations be laid and served before such persons appointed to determine the same within three months next after every such Offence committed and that where thereof he gives in such person or persons (against whom such Informations shall be laid) in writing or left in their Dwelling House within one Week after the laying and serving such Information to the end a speedy provision may be had and made in defending the same any thing in this Act or other Law to the contrary notwithstanding

CHAPTER II.

An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject and Settling the Succession of the Crown.

See Part p. 5.
no 1

WHEREAS the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons assembled at Westminster lawfully fully and truly representing all the Estates of the People of this Realm did upon the thirtieth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand six hundred eighty eight present unto their Majesties then called and known by the Names and Stile of William and Mary Prince and Princess of Orange being present in their proper Persons a certain Declaration in Writing made by the said Lords and Commons in the Words following viz

The Rights of Declaration of Rights and Commons, 1689

Deposing and Suspending Power.

Granting Petitions.

Enfranchising Commons.

Levying Money.

Starting Army.

Disarming
Protestants, &c.

Violating Petitions.

Legal Proceedings.

And

WHEREAS the late King James the Second by the Assistance of diverse evil Counsellors Judges and Ministers employed by him did endeavour to subvert and extirpate the Protestant Religion and the Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom

By Assuming and Exercising a Power of Deposing with and Suspending of Lawes and the Execution of Lawes without Consent of Parliament
By Granting and Proceeding diverse Writs Petitions for hardly Petitioning to be excused from Concurring to the said Assumed Powers.

By Inventing and contriving to be executed a Commission under the Great Seale for Establishing a Court called The Court of Commissioners for Ecclesiastical Causes.

By Levying Money for and to the Use of the Crown by Pretence of Prærogative for other time and in other manner then the same was granted by Parliament.

By raising and keeping a Standing Army within this Kingdom in time of Peace without Consent of Parliament and Quartering Soldiers contrary to Law.

By causing several good Subjects being Protestants to be disarmed at the same time when Papists were both Armed and employed contrary to Law.

By Violating the Privileges of Election of Members to serve in Parliament

By Prosecutions in the Court of Kings Bench for Matters and Causes cognizable only in Parliament and by diverse other Arbitrary and Unlawful Courses

And whereas of late years Partial Courts and Unqualified Persons have been returned and served on Juries in Tryalls and particularly diverse Juries in Tryalls for High Treasons which were not Freeholders,

And excessive Bails hath bene required of Persons committed in Criminal Cases to staid the Benefit of the Lawes made for the Liberty of the Subjects.

before Comditions, etc.

And severall Grants and Promises made of Fines and Forfeitures before any Condition or Judgement against the Person upon whom the same were to be levied.

All which are strictly and directly contrary to the known Lawes and Statutes and Precedents of this Realme.

Record that the late
King James II.
had obtained the Governance, and that the Throne was vacant, and that the Princes of Orange had written Letters to the Lords and Commons for the choosing Representatives in Parliament.

And whereas the said late King James the Second having Abolished the Government and the Throne being thereby Vacant His (Highness) the Prince of Orange (whome it hath pleased Almighty God to make the glorious Instrument of Delivering this Kingdom from Popery and Arbitrary Power) did (by the Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and diverse principall Persons of the Commons) cause Letters to be written to the Lords Spiritual and Temporal being Protestants and other Letters to the severall Countiees Cities Universities Burroughes and Cinque Ports for the Choosing of such Persons to represent them as were of right to be sent to Parliament to meete and sit at Westminster upon the two and twentieth day of January in the Year next deceased six hundred eighty and eight in order to such an Establishment as that their Religion Lives and Liberties might not againe be in danger of being Salvaged, Upon which Letters Highness Arreng became accordingly made.

And thereupon the said Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons pursuant to their respective Letters and Elections being now assembled in a full and free Representation of the Nation taking into their most serious Consideration the best manner for attaining the Ends abovesaid Doe in the first place (to their Answerers in like Case have recently done) for the Visiting and Assenting their ancient Rights and Liberties, Declare

The Subjects Rights.

That the pretended Power of Suspending of Lawes or the Execution of Lawes by Regall Authority without Consent of Parliament is illegal.

Alliances.	I A B do solemnly promise and swear That I will be faithful and true Allegiance to their Majesties King William and Queen Mary Soe helps me God.
Supremacy.	I A B do swear That I doe from my Heart Abhorre, Detest and Abjure as Impious and Hereticall this damnable Doctrine and Position That Princes Excommunicated or Deposed by the Pope or any Authority of the See of Rome may be deposed or murdered by their Subjects or any other whatsoever. And I doe declare That noe Forreigne Prince Person Prelate, State or Potestate hath or ought to have any Iurisdiction Power Supremacy Preeminence or Authority Ecclesiasticall or Spirituall within this Realme Soe helps me God.
Acceptance of the Crowne	Upon which their said Majesties did accept the Crowne and Royall Dignity of the Kingdoms of England France and Ireland and the Dominions therunto belonging according to the Resolution and Decree of the said Lords and Commons contained in the said Declaration And thereupon their Majesties were pleased That the said Lords Spiritual and Temporall and Commons being the two Houses of Parliament should continue to sit and with their Majesties Royall Consent make effectuall Provision for the Settlement of the Religion Lawes and Liberties of this Kingdom soe that the same for the future might not be in danger againe of being subverted. To which the said Lords Spiritual and Temporall and Commons did agree and proceeded to all accordingly.
The Two Houses to sit.	New in pursuance of the Promise that the said Lords Spiritual and Temporall and Commons in Parliament assembled for the ratifying confirming and establishing the said Declaration and the Articles Clauses Matters and Things therein contained by the Force of a Law made in due Forme by Authority of Parliament doe say that it may be declared and certified That all and singular the Rights and Liberties asserted and claimed in the said Declaration are the true ancient and undoubted Rights and Liberties of the People of this Kingdom and the same shall be ever after allowed allowed deemed and taken to be and that all and every the particulars aforesaid shall be freely and lawfully holden and observed as they are expressed in the said Declaration And all Officers and Ministers whatsoever shall serve their Majesties and their Successors according to the same in all times to come. And the said Lords Spiritual and Temporall and Commons do hereby considering howe it hath pleased Almighty God in his marvellous Providence and mercifull Goodness to this Nation to provide and preserve their said Majesties Royall Persons most happily to Reigne over us upon the Throne of their Ancestors for which they render unto him from the bottom of their Hearts their humblest Thanks and Praises doe freely freely severally and in the Minority of their Hearts think and doe hereby recognize acknowledge and declare That King James the Second having abdicated the Government and their Majesties having accepted the Crowne and Royall Dignity [in] aforesaid Their said Majesties did become were and of right ought to be by the Lawes of this Realme our Sovereigne Large Lord and Lady King and Queene of England France and Ireland and the Dominions therunto belonging in and to whose Privately Persons the Royal State Crowne and Dignity of the said Realms with all Honours Seies Titles Regalities Prerogatives Powers Jurisdictiones and Authorities in the same belonging and appertaining are most fully rightfull and lawfully asserted and incorporated united and annexed And for preventing all Questions and Differences in this Realme by reason of any pretended Titles to the Crowne and for proceeding a Company in the Succession thereof in and upon which the Unity Peace Tranquillity and Safety of this Nation doth under God wholly consist and depend The said Lords Spiritual and Temporall and Commons doe beseech their Majesties That it may be enacted established and declared That the Crowne and Royall Government of the said Kingdoms and Dominions with all and singular the Prerogatives therunto belonging and appertaining shall here and continue to them and Majesties and the Successors of them during their Lives and the Life of the Survivor of them And that the entire perfect and full Exercise of the Royall Power and Government be only in and executed by his Majesty in the Names of both their Majesties during their joint Lives And after their decease the said Crowne and Prerogatives shall be and continue in the Heirs of the Body of her Majesty and for default of such Issue to her Royall Highnesse the Princess Anne of Denmark and the Heirs of her Body and for default of such Issue to the Heirs of the Body of his said Majesty And therefore the said Lords Spiritual and Temporall and Commons doe in the Name of all the People aforesaid most humbly and faithfully submit themselves their Heirs and Posterities for ever and doe faithfully promise That they will stand to maintain and defend their said Majesties and alsoe the Limitation and Succession of the Crowne herein specified and contained in the verities of their Powers with their Lives and Estates against all Persons whatsoever that shall attempt any thing to the contrary. And whereas it hath beene found by Experience that it is inconsistent with the Safety and Welfare of this Protestant Kingdom to be governed by a Popish Prince or by any King or Queene marrying a Popish the said Lords Spiritual and Temporall and Commons doe further say doe it may be enacted That all and every person and persons that is or shall be succeeded to or shall hold Communion with the See or Church of Rome or shall profess the Popish Religion or shall marry a Popish shall be excluded and be for ever incapable to inherit possess or enjoy the Crowne and Government of this Realme and Ireland and the Dominions therunto belonging or any part of the same or to have use or exercise any Royall Power Authority or Jurisdiction within the same [And in all and every such Case or Cases the People of those Realms shall be and are lawfully absolved of their Allegiance"] And the said Crowne and Government shall from time to time descend to and be enjoyed by such person or persons being Protestants as should have inherited and enjoyed the same in case the said person or persons be remembered holding Communion or Professing or Marrying as aforesaid were naturally dead [And that every King and Queene of this Realme who at any time hereafter shall come to and succede in the Imperiall Crowne of this Kingdom shall on the first day of the meeting of the first Parliament next after his or her

CHAPTER IX.

An Act to take away Clergy from some Offenders and to bring other to Punishment

FORASMUCH as diverse wicked and ill disposed persons are encouraged to commit Robberies upon most persons and in their Houses and other Offenders by the privilege as the Law now is of demanding the benefits of their Clergy Be it therefore enacted by the King and Queens most Excellent Majesties by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual [and] Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same That all and every person or persons that shall at any time from and after the First day of March in the year of our Lord One thousand six hundred ninety one rob any other person or shall feloniously take away any Goods or Chattels being in any Dwelling house the Owner or any other person being therein and put in Fear or shall rob any Dwelling-house in the day time any person being therein or shall commit aid abet assist counsel hire or command any person or persons to commit any of the said Offences or to break any Dwelling house Shop or Warehouse whatsoever belonging as therewith used in the day time and feloniously take away any Money Goods or Chattels of the value of Five shillings or upwards therein being although no person shall be within such Dwelling house Shop or Warehouse or shall counsel hire or command any person to commit any Burglary being thereof convicted as aforesaid or being indicted thereof shall stand mute or will not directly answer to the indictment or shall peremptorily challenge above the number of Twenty persons returned to be of the Jury shall not have the benefit of his or their Clergy

See Post, p. 1.

See Post, p. 1. Any Person convicted of robbery any other Person, or any Dwelling house, any other Person, being therein and put in fear, or all childrens Dwelling-house in the day time, any Person being therein, or aiding, or to commit the said Offences, or to break any Dwelling house, or in the day time, and take in the value of 5s. although no Person shall, or commanding, or assisting, or waiting upon, &c. shall benefit Clergy.

II. Persons excluded from Clergy standing mute, &c. not admitted to Clergy.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid That if any person or persons whatsoever be indicted of any Offence for which by virtue of any Statute he or they are excluded from having the benefit of his or their Clergy if he or they had been thereof convicted by Verdict or Confession if he or they stand mute or will not answer directly to the Felony or shall challenge peremptorily above the number of Twenty persons returned to be [of the Jury] or shall be outlawed thereupon shall not be admitted to the benefit of his or their Clergy

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid That if any person or persons hereafter be indicted of Felony for stealing of any Goods or Chattels in any County within this Realm of England Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed and thereof be convicted or attainted or upon his or their arraignments shall stand mute or will not directly answer to the indictment or shall challenge peremptorily above the number of

III. Persons excluded or standing mute, &c. in what case excluded from Clergy.

twenty persons assumed to be of the Jury he or they shall be totally excluded from having the benefit of his or their Clergy if it appear upon Evidence or Examination before the Justice that the said Goods or Chattel were taken by Robbery or Burglary or in any other manner in any other County whereof if such person or persons had been convicted by a Jury of the said other County he or they are excluded by virtue of this or any other Act from having the benefit of his or their Clergy

IV.
Persons of stolen
Goods, reported Accessories after the Fact.

AND furthermore as Thieves and Robbers are much encouraged to commit such Offences because a great number of persons make it their trade and business to deal in the buying of Stolen Goods he is therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid that if any person or persons shall buy or receive any Goods or Chattel due shall be feloniously taken or stolen from any other person knowing the same to be stolen but or they shall be taken and deemed an Accessory or Accessories to such Felony after the Fact and shall incur the same Punishment as an Accessory or Accessories to the Felony after the Felony committed

V.
Stealing Goods
from Lodgings, Felony

[And] Whereas it is a frequent Practice for idle and disorderly persons in their Lodgings with an intent to have an opportunity to take away and purloin the Goods and Furniture being in such Lodgings he is therefore enacted and declared by the authority aforesaid That if any person or persons shall take away with an intent to steal and purloin any Chattel Being or Furniture which by Contract or Agreement he or they are to use as shall be let to him or them to use in or with such Lodging such taking and purloining shall be to all intents and purposes taken reputed adjudged to be Larceny and Felony and the offender shall suffer in as case of Felony

VI.
Women convicted of Crimes for which Men have their Clergy upon Pledge granted to them

AND whereas by the Laws of this Realm Women convicted of Felony for stealing of Goods and Chattel of the value of Ten shillings and upwards and for other Felonies where a man is to have the benefit of his Clergy are to suffer Death he is therefore enacted and declared by the authority aforesaid that where a man being convicted of any Felony for which law may demand the benefit of his Clergy if a Woman be convicted for the same or like offence upon her Pledge to have the benefit of this Statute judgment of Death shall not be given against her upon such Conviction or Execution awarded upon any authority for such offence but shall suffer the same Punishment as a Man should suffer that has the benefit of his Clergy whereof him in the like case that is to say shall be burnt in the Stake by the Gaoler in open Court and further kept in Prison for such time as the Justices in their discretion shall think [fit:] so as the same do not exceed One years Imprisonment

Punishment.

VII.
Where a Person has had his Clergy in another County,
Clerk of the Peace,
&c. shall certify it.

AND furthermore as such Men who have once had their Clergy and such Women as shall once have the benefit of this Statute may happen to be indicted for an offence committed afterwards in some other County he is therefore enacted that the Clerk of the Crown Clerk of the Peace Clerk of the Assizes where such [Woman or Man:] shall be convicted shall at the request of the Prosecutor or any other in their Majesties behalf certify a Transcript briefly and in few words containing the effect and tenor of every Indictment and Conviction of such Man or Woman of his having the benefit of the Clergy or her having the benefit of this Statute and Addition of every such person or persons and the conviction of the Felony and Conviction to the Judges and Justices in such other County where such Man or Woman shall be indicted which Certificate being produced in Court shall be a sufficient proof that such Man hath before had the benefit of his Clergy and that such Woman hath had the benefit of this Statute]

CHAPTER X.

AN ACT for the more effectual Discovery and Punishment of Deer Stealers

But Part of it is in force.

Second that Persons have Consideration to pay Penalties,
&c. at Court.

WHEREAS notwithstanding the many good Laws before this time made and still in force which do prohibit unlawful compassing hunting or killing of Deer yet inasmuch as the Penalties thereby provided are found by daily experience not to be sufficient to deter divers lewd sturdy and disorderly persons who confederate together in great numbers making amongst themselves as it were a Brotherhood and Fraternity whereby if any of them shall be discovered and convicted which seldom happens because of their great force and clandestine manner of combination they by a common contribution and for the most part advance and pay for each person so apprehended the pecuniary Penalties (which are but small) inflicted on such offenders by reason whereof the other confederates escape discovery and complete punishment Therefore for the more effectual discovery and punishment of such persons he is enacted by the King and Queens most excellent Majesties and by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same That if any person or persons shall from and after the Twentieth day of March in the years of our Lord One thousand six hundred ninety two unlawfully [hunt course:] take or destroy kill wound or take away any Red or Fallow Deer in any Forest Chase Park or Pleasure Wood Parks or other Ground enclosed where Deer are kept or shall be usually kept within the Realm of England or Dominion of Wales without the consent of the owner or person chiefly interested with the custody thereof or shall be aiding or assisting therein and shall be convicted thereof by the confession of the Party or by the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses before one or more Justices of the Peace of the same County wherein the offence shall be committed or the Party offending apprehended which Oath the said Justice or Justices hereby are empowered to administer and such persons being prosecuted for such Offence within Twelve months after such offence done That then every such person so offending by unlawfull shooting or hunting only when so Deer is taken wounded or killed shall forfeit for every such offence the Summe of Twenty pounds. And in case any Deer shall by such person or persons be wounded taken in troyle or killed that for each Deer so wounded killed or taken such person or persons shall respectively forfeit and pay the Summe of Thirty pounds to be levied by way of distress upon the Goods and Chattels of every such offender by Warrant under the Justice or Justices hand before whom such Conviction or Convictions shall be made the one third [part<sup>1</sup>] of such Forfeitures to be given to the Informer or Informers [the other part] to the use of the Poor of the Parish where the Offence shall be committed and the other third part to the Owner of such Deer. And for want of sufficient Distresse that then such [persons<sup>2</sup>] shall suffer Imprisonment by the space of one whole year without Bail or Mainprize and shall be sent in the Pilgrimage by the space of one house on some Market day in the next adjoining Towne to the place where such offence was committed by the chief Officer or Officers of such Market-Towne or by his or their Under Officer or Officers.

Finally, also for each Deer
wounded, affor-ested by Distress

Writ of Habeas Corporum

And be it further enacted That every Constable Headborough and Tythingmen (being thereto authorized by the Warrant of one or more Justices of Peace under his or their Hands & Seales) shall and may have full Power and Authority and be lawfully required to enter into and search (in such manner and with such power as in case where Goods are stolen or suspected to be stolen) the House or Houses Out-houses or other places belonging to such Houses of suspected Persons. And in case any Venison or Skin of any Deer or Tyeles shall there be found such Officer shall apprehend such Offender and carry him before some Justice of the Peace of the same County And if such person does not give a good Account how he came by such Venison Skins or Tyeles such as shall satisfy the said Justice or else shall not in some convenient time to be set him by the said Justice produce the Party of whom he bought such Venison Skins or Tyeles or some other credible Witness to depose upon Oath such Sale of the said Venison or Skins That then such person not giving such good Account nor producing any such Witness as aforesaid shall be convicted by the said Justice of such Offence who on such Conviction shall be subject unto the Forfeitures and Penalties hereby inflicted for the killing of any one Deer in the same manner as if thereof convicted as aforesaid.

II Convicted may make appeal on Warrant by Warrant

If Venison, he found with Offender cannot give a good Account of himself,
he is a Convicted

And to the end that no persons convicted of any of the Offences as aforesaid may escape Punishment by their flight or other removal after such conviction Be it further enacted by and with the Authority aforesaid That a shall and may be lawfull for and lawfully power and authority is given (after conviction as aforesaid) to the Constable or other Officer or person or persons prosecuting to detain in custody such Offender or Offenders (in case he or they shall not presently pay the moneys due by the said Conviction) detaining such reasonable time as a release may be conveniently had and made to the Warrant for the Distresse upon such Conviction so as such Detainer do not exceed two days.

III Convicted may appeal Offender will Distress enough.

And to the end all Owners of Deer in any Inclosed Ground may be intrepided in the just defence of such their right Be it enacted That any Owner of such Deer or any person or persons acting by him and under him shall and may oppose and resist such Offenders in the same manner and be equally intrepided for so doing as if such Felt had been entered within any ancient Chase or Park whatsoever.

IV
Persons having Deer in inclosed Ground may oppose Offenders.

And whereas some Offenders daily convicted do casually procure Writ of Certiorari to remove such Convictions into Superior Court at Westminster in hope thereby to discourage and weary out such persons injured by great delays expenses and intermeddles Be it therefore enacted That no Certiorari shall be allowed to remove any Conviction made on other Proceeding of for or concerning any trespass or thing in this Act unless the Party or Parties against whom such Conviction shall be made shall before the allowance of such Certiorari become bounden to the person or persons prosecuting in the Sum of Fifty pounds with such sufficient Sureties as the Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom such Offender was convicted shall think fit with condition to pay unto the said Prosecutors within one Month after such Conviction confirmed or a Proceudo granted their full Costs and Damages to be ascertained upon their Oaths and that in default thereof it shall be lawfull for the said Justice and Justices and others to proceed to the due execution of such Conviction in such manner as if no Certiorari had been awarded. Provided that where any Offender shall be punished by force of this Act that he shall not be punished nor incur the penalty of any other Law or Statute for the same Offence.

WHEREAS one Act of Parliament made in the Thirtieth and Fourteenth years of His late Majesty King Charles the Second Enacted An Act for the better Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom (except what relates to the Corporation therein mentioned and continued thereby) was revived and continued with some Alterations by one other Act made in the First years of the late King James the Second and have been found [by experience] to be good and wholesome Laws but may shortly expire. Be it therefore enacted by the King and Queens most Excellent Majesties by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by authority of the same That the said Act is in what relates to the Settlement of the Poor shall be in force from the First day of March One thousand six hundred ninety one.

BUT inasmuch as the said Act is somewhat defective and doubtful for supplying and explaining the same Be it further provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the Forty days continuance of such person in a Parish or Towne intended by the said Act to make a Settlement shall be accounted from the Publication of a Notice in Writing which he or she shall deliver of the House of his or her Abode and the number of his or her Family if he or she have any to the Churchwarden or Overseers of the Poor which said Notice in Writing the said Churchwarden or Overseers of the Poor is or are hereby required to read or cause to be read publicly immediately after Divine Service in the Church or Chappel of the said Parish or Towne on the next Lord's day when there shall be Divine Service in the same. And the said Churchwarden or Overseers of the Poor is or are hereby required to register or cause to be registered the said Notice in Writing in the Book kept for the Poor Account.

PROVIDED always and be it enacted That no Soldier Seaman Shipwright or other Artificer or Workmen employed in Their Majesties Service shall have any Settlement in any Parish Porttowne or other Towne by Delivery and Publication of a notice in Writing as aforesaid unless the same be after the Discharge of such person out of Their Majesties Service.

AND be it further Enacted That if any Churchwarden or Overseers of the Poor shall refuse or neglect to read or cause to be read such Notice in Writing as aforesaid at such manner place and time as aforesaid he or they for every such Offence (upon proof thereof by two credible Witnesses upon Oath before any Justice of the Peace of the same County Riding or Division City or Towne Corporate where complaint thereof shall be made) shall forfeit the Sum of Forty shillings to the use of the party grieved to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender or Offenders Goods by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Justice of the Peace within the said Jurisdiction respectively to the Constable of the Parish or Towne where such Offender or Offenders dwell the Description of any he or she is to be returned to the Owner or Owners and for want of such sufficient Distress the said Justice shall command him or them to the Common Goal of the said County City or Towne Corporate there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the space of one Month and if any Churchwarden or Overseers of the Poor shall refuse or neglect to register or cause to be registered such Notice in Writing as aforesaid he or they so offending upon the like Comdition shall forfeit the Sum of Forty shillings to the use of the Poor of the Parish or Towne where such Offender or Offenders dwell to be levied as aforesaid the Overplus if any be to be returned to the Owner or Owners and for want of such sufficient Distress then the said Justice shall command each Offender or Offenders as aforesaid for the time aforesaid.

PROVIDED always and be it Enacted That if any person who shall come to inhabit in any Towne or Parish shall for himselfe and on his own account execute any publick annual Office or charge in the said Towne or Parish during one whole year or shall be charged with and pay his share toward the publick Taxes or Levies of the said Towne or Parish then he shall be adjudged and deemed to have a legal Settlement in the same though no such Notice in Writing be delivered and published as is hereby before required.

AND it is hereby further Enacted That if any Unmarried person not having Child or Children shall be lawfully banded into any Parish or Towne for one year such Service shall be [adjudged to be] deemed a good Settlement therein though no such Notice in Writing be delivered and published as is herein before required.

AND it is hereby further Enacted That if any person shall be bound in Apprenticeship and inhabit in any Towne or Parish such Binding and Inhabitation shall be adjudged a good Settlement though no such Notice in Writing be delivered and published as aforesaid.

PROVIDED always and be it hereby Enacted That if any person or persons shall find him her or themselves aggrieved by any determination which any Justice or Justices of the Peace shall make in any of the Cases aforesaid the said person or persons shall have liberty to appeal on the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the said County Riding or Division City or Towne Corporate who upon full hearing of the said Appeal shall have full power fully to determine the same.

And be it further Enacted That if any person be removed by virtue of this Act from one County Riding City Towne Corporate or Liberty to another by Warrant under the Hand<sup>es</sup> and Seale of two Justices of the Peace the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Place of the said Parish or Towne to which the said person shall be so removed are hereby required to receive the said person and if he or they shall refuse so to do he or they so refusing or neglecting (upon proof thereof by Two Credible Witnesses upon Oath before any Justice of the Peace of the County Riding City or Towne Corporate to which the said person shall be [so<sup>e</sup>] removed) shall forfeit for each Offence the sum of Five pound<sup>s</sup> to the use of the Peace of the Parish or Towne from which the said person was removed to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender or Offenders Goods<sup>es</sup> by Warrant under the Hand and Seale of any Justice of the Peace of the County Riding City or Towne Corporate to which such person was removed to the Constable of the Parish or Towne where such Offender or Offenders dwell<sup>eth</sup> which Warrant the said Justice is hereby empowered and required to make the Oath<sup>es</sup> if any be to be returned to the Owner or Owners and for want of such sufficient Distress then the said Justice shall commit the said Offender or Offenders to the Common Gaol of the said County Riding City or Towne Corporate or Liberty there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the space of Forty days

Provided always and be it hereby Enacted that all such persons who think themselves aggrieved with any such Judgment of the said two Justices may appeal to the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County Riding City Towne Corporate or Liberty from which the said person was so removed

And whereas many inconveniences do daily arise in Cities Townes Corporate and Parishes where the Inhabitants are very numerous by reason of the unlimited power of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor who do frequently upon frivolous pretences (but chiefly for their own private ends) give relief to what persons and number they think fit and such persons being mixed into the Collection Bill do become after that a great charge to the Parish notwithstanding the occasion or pretence of their receiving Collection otherwise causes by which means the Rates for the Poor are daily increased contrary to the true intent of a Statute made in the Forty third year of the Reigne of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth Entituled An Act for the Relief of the Poor. For remedying of which and preventing the like abuses for the future Be it further Enacted That from and after the (1st) First day of March there shall be provided and kept in every Parish (in the charge of the same Parish) a Book or Book<sup>s</sup> wherein the Names of all such persons who do or may receive Collection shall be registered with the day and year when they were first admitted to have Relief and the occasion which (brought<sup>en</sup>) them under that necessity And that yearly in Easter Week (or as often as it shall be thought convenient) the Parishioners of every Parish shall meet in their Vestry or other usual place of meeting in the same Parish before whom the said Book shall be produced and all persons receiving Collection to be called over and the reasons of their taking relief examined and a new List made and entered of such persons as they shall think fit and allow to receive Collection and that no other person be allowed to have or receive Collection sit the Charge of the said Parish but by Authority under the Hand of one Justice of the Peace residing within such Parish or (if none be there dwelling) in the Parish near or next adjoining or by Order of the Justices in their respective Quarter Sessions except in cases of Plague or small Pox for and in respect of such Families only as are or shall be therewith infected.

[And whereas many Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor and other persons intrusted to receive Collections for the Poor and other publick moneys relating to the churches and parishes whereunto they (do<sup>e</sup>) belong do often mispend the said moneys and take the same to their own use to the great prejudice of such parishes and the Poor and other Inhabitants thereof And because that many times the Judges when Actions are brought against such Churchwardens and Overseers to recover the moneys so mispent taken or misapplied by the persons aforesaid refuse to admit the Parishioners [to be<sup>e</sup>] Witnesses in such cases who are the only persons that can make proof thereof Wherefore to prevent all such evil and deceitful practices of Churchwardens and Overseers and other persons Be it enacted and declared That in all Actions to be brought in Their Majesties Court of Record at Westminster or at the Assizes for recovery of any Sum or sums of money so mispent or taken by Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor for the Evils of the Parishioners or any of them other than of such as receive Alms or any Pension or Gift out of such Collections or publick moneys of such Parish or Parishes respectively wherein the Defendants or Defendants is or are Inhabitant or Inhabitants shall be taken and admitted in all such cases in the Court aforesaid Any Statute Rule Order or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.]
